Abundant blessings from the local mountains and seas

The offshore Sanriku region, where the Oyashio and Kuroshio currents intersect, is like a natural fishpond, offering a diverse and plentiful selection of seafood. Additionally, there is an abundance of delicious meats, such as beef raised in the fertile soil of Kitakami and Ou, and the blessings of the land provide a variety of local mountain delicacies. At our hotel, we cherish seasonal ingredients and warmly welcome you with flavorful dishes that emphasize local production and consumption.

Enjoy the seasonal blessings of Iwate and the beautifying hot springs.
